Numb. 3232

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday Octob. 29. to Monday Novemb. 2. 1696.

Leghorne, October 15. N. S.

SEveral Barks are come in here this week from Provence, by whom we have advice, that the French Galleys are returned to Marſeilles from the Coaſt of Catalonia; and that they are fitting out 8 Frigats at Toulon. The Panther, Capt. Fuller, ſailed hence the 10th Inſtant to cruiſe; and the Slaughter Galley will depart to morrow for Aleppo.

Venice, Oct. 18. The News of a Battle between the Venetian and Turkiſh Fleets is confirmed by Advices from Zeffalonia, and other places, which tell us at the ſame time, the advantage was very much on our ſide; 'Tis ſaid, the Captain Baſſa Mezzomorto is killed, 6 Turkiſh Ships called Sultanes taken, and two ſunk; That the Venetians purſued the Enemy to Scio; and landed afterwards in the Iſland of Negrepont, and made themſelves Maſters of a ſtrong Caſtle; But there is yet no Account come of this Engagement directly from the Fleet; Whence we are therefore expecting Letters with much impatience. The Pope has cauſed 40000 Crowns to be remitted to his Nuncio here, which Money is to be paid to the Germans on account of their Winter Quarters.

Milan, Oct. 17. On the 9th Inſtant the French Forces before Valence began to draw off their Cannon from the Batteries, and to quit the Poſts they were Maſters of near the Town; and on the 14th they left their Camp, and marched towards Montferrat. The German Troops are ſtill encamped at Vigevanano, ſtaying for the firſt Payment of the 300000 Piſtoles, allowed them by the Princes of Italy for Winter Quarters, and Security for the remainder. Our Governor the Marquis de Leganez, has been to view the Gariſon of Valence ſince the raiſing of the Siege, and to thank them for having ſo well defended it; 'Tis certain the French loſt a great many Men there. The Prince de Commercy is come hither, and will in few days be going for Vienna.

Turin, Oct. 19. The Duke of Savoy returned hither from the Army on the 11th of this month; and his Troops that were before Valence are ſince come back into Piedmont; The French Forces have left the Milaneze, but make a halt in Montferrat till the Germans do likewiſe march away; who are firſt to receive 100000 Piſtoles, in part for their Winter Quarters. The Duke of Savoy has appointed Commiſſaries to attend the French Forces in their march, to provide Forage for them, and to do all they can to prevent diſorders; They deſign to march in 4 ſeveral Bodies, one by the way of Aſt, another by Suſa, a third by the Valley of Perouſe, and the fourth by Barcelonette; Moſt of theſe Troops are, it's ſaid, to Winter in Provence, and conſidering the Seaſon they muſt make haſte to paſs the Mountains, that they may not be prevented by the Snow, which generally falls in theſe parts, in great abundance, in November. The Prince of Trivultio, and the Marquis de Bourgomanero, Hoſtages for the Emperor and for Spain; and the Count de Teſſe and the Marquis de Vins for the French, are come hither, and are to remain in this City, till what has been agreed on is performed. Count Mansfelt, the Imperial Envoy, and Count Brainer, Commiſſary General of the German Forces, are likewiſe come hither from Milan, and will ſtay a few days here. The Duke of Savoy has ordered two Battalions of his Troops to march towards Pignerol, to aſſiſt the French in demoliſhing the Fortifications of that place.

Vienna, Oct. 22. The laſt Advices from Hungary inform us, that the Grand Viſier finding the Fortreſs of Titul too well provided to attempt it with any probability of ſucceſs, had given over that deſign, and was following the Sultan to Adrianople; and the Turkiſh Troops were all marching to their Winter Quarters; Upon this Advice General Caprara, who encamped with the Imperial Army the 8th Inſtant at Tallia, two Leagues from Eſſecke, ordered the Troops to ſeparate there on the 12th, and to repair to the ſeveral Quarters aſſigned them. The Forces that marched under General Rabutin to Tranſilvania, were by the laſt Letters from thoſe parts poſted near Deva, intending in few days to march likewiſe to their Winter Quarters. The Duke of Lorrain arrived here the 14th from Hungary, and was very kindly received by the Emperor. The Elector of Saxony continues ſtill at this Court. The Envoy of Moſcovy had this week Audience of the Emperor, to whom he preſented a Letter from the Czar, containing an ample Account of his late Victories againſt the Turks and Tartars. General Caprara is expected here in few days.

Franefort, Oct. 28. The Forces on the Rhine are gone on both ſides into their Winter Quarters. Prince Lewis of Baden is at preſent at Guntsburg, and will continue there ſome time; A good Body of Troops are poſted near the Rivers Rhine and Neckar, to ſecure thoſe Countreys againſt the Enemies Excurſions during the Winter. The States of Franconia, Suabia, and the other Circles, are going to meet to Conſult about the Preparations for the next year.

Hamburgh, Oct. 30. The Aſſiſtance Frigat, Capt. Robinſon Commander, being Convoy to the Merchant Ships from Hull, arrived here on Sunday laſt; and brought in a Ship of 120 Tuns laden with Sugars from St. Malo, which we believe will prove a good Prize.

Paris, Oct. 29. The Campagne is every where ended; and our General Officers are returning hither. The Mareſchal de Villeroy would have been here before now, had he not been taken ill with the Gout on his Journey. The Letters from Italy ſay, the French Forces were encamped the 16th Inſtant at Candia, having been two days in marching thither from Valence, though it is only